WASHINGTON, D. C., FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1874.

Mr. SAUGENT moved an amendment to the sensity of the Sensity from California has exercised a fatherly care over San Francisco, for which he gave him credit.

Mr. SARGENT. I did not have the advantage of being on the conference committee, though.

Mr. SARGENT moved an amendment to the sixth section, striking out that portion providing that the First and Second Comptrollers of the Treasury shall constitute a board of sudit, and providing that the Seretary of the Treasury shall designate three of his subordinates to constitute the board of audit.

Mr. ALLISON said the committee had carefully considered this matter, and were satisfied Mr. SARGENT. I did not have the advan-tage of being on the conference committee, though.

Mr. SCOTT said the Senate bill fixed salares hen adjusted to correspond with the reduction, it he adoption of moieties. The moieties in San randsco were but $2,000 last year, while in Phildelphia they were $20000.

Francisco were but $2,000 lass year, adelphia they were 130,000.

Mr. SARWENT did not object to Philadelphia being inserted, but he did object to this degradation of San Francisco.

Mr. WEST said New Orleans had also been degraded and reduced below Philadelphia, which mr. WEST said New Orleans had also been degraded and reduced below Philadelphia, which he did not understand.

Mr. HOWE opposed the adoption of the report. He said the report made the reuenue laws less efficacious than formerly. It was in opposition to the views of many honest merchants. The provisions for penaltics were so lose that they never could be enforced, and any officer undertaking to enforce them would be called infamous. In proceeding in his remarks, Mr. Hows inquired why the saiary of the collector of New York should be placed at $12,000 per annum, when that of the Secretary of the Treasury was $8,000 per annum. Mr. OONKLING said he could mention one reason. The pecuniary responsibility of the collector at New York was enormous, amounting at times to half a million a day. He was responsible, not only for himself, but for his army of subordinates. There was not an insurance company in the land that would insure the sum for which he collector at New York is liable at a premium no greater than the amount fixed as his salary.

Mr. HOWE said the Treasurer at New York did not get so much salary, and yet their pecuniary liability was fully equal to that of the New York collector.

Mr. CARPENTER said the effect of the bill from beginning to end was in the interest of the smugglers. It was the tenderest drawn bill he had ever met with. He then alluded to a criticism in the editorial columns of the New York World in his appointment of the New York World in his appointment of the New York World in the editorial columns of the New York World in his appointment of the conference commit.

He then alluded to a criticism in the editorial columns of the New York World in his appointment of the verif abused him for putting his colleague [Mr. Hows] on this committee on the moiety bill. The World abused him for putting his colleague [Mr. Hows] on this committee, and also abused his colleague. He rejoiced at this, because he had been abused so long that it was refreshing to be yoked to another and have the lash fall on both together. The World had denounced him for not appointing all the members of the conference committee from the Finance Committee, and alleged that he had departed from the usage of the Senate.

Mr. Carranven then showed that according to parliamentary usage it was his duty to appoint on the conference committee members representing both sides of the question. Before appointing the conference committee had consulted with the chairplan of the Finance Committee [Mr. Sherman,] and that Senator had approved of the selection which he had made. The article in the World further said that he [Mr. C.] had been telegraphed for as counsel of Harrey, the spy, and had gone on to New York and given Harvey valuable legal legal advice. All this was entirely untrue. He had never received any telegraph in this commetting such had feet any telegraph in this commetting such had feet any telegraph to the prosecution against Phelips, Dodge & Oo. He opposed such business, and had never and in the prose-cution against Pholps, Dodge & Co. He opposed the molety bill because he considered it ruinous to the revenue and an encouragement to smug-glers, but when occupying the chair it was always his effort to be governed by parliamentary rules and usage. and usage.

Mr. SHERMAN corroborated entirely the statement of Mr. OARPENTER as to the appointment of the conference committee, and said it was in exact accordance with the rules of the Senate.

After some further discussion the report of the

Mr. ALLISON stated that unless the new Dis-iriet bill was taken up to-day it could not be passed at this session. On motion of Mr. MORRILL, of Vt., a confer-ence committee was ordered on the bill to regu-late gas-works in the city of Washington. On motion of Mr. SPRAGUE, the House con-ceptant accounts of the second of the country of the con-servent resolution granting the use of the redunds arrent resolution granting the use of the retun-er a Centennial tea-party celebration on ti-vening of December 16 next was adopted.

THE UTAM BILL.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN called attention to the bill pending for the enforcement of the laws of the United States in the Territory of Utah. He said it was very essential that this bill should be passed before the adjournment. He had this morning received a letter from the Atterney General, urging him to press the bill upon the Senate.

PENSIONS FOR SOLDIERS OF 1812.
Mr. PRATT desired to call attention to the bill in reference to pensions to the surviving soldiers and sailors of the war of 1812. He was overwhelmed with solicitations from all quarters to pass this bill, and he besought the Senate, if it desired that he should continue a sane man, that it would give him some time, morning, midnight or daybreak, in which he could have action on this bill. his bill.

Mr. Pratr was called to order by various Sentors, and was compelled to ait down, the Chan leciding that no motion was in order at that time. The CHAIR appointed as the committee of conference on the gas bill Mesers. Morrill, o Vermont, Coores and Allison.

act to amend, revise and consolidate the pension laws.

Mr. PRATT also introduced bill to charter a double-track freight railway from tide water on the Atlantic seabeard to the Missouri river, and limit the rates of freight thereon. Referred to Bailroads.
Mr. UUNKLING called up House bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to report upon the necessity of a public bailding at Brooklyn, I. Y., and the estimated cost of the same.

INTER-OCEANIC SHIP CANAL. The CHAIR-laid before the Schale a communi-cation from the Secretary of the Navy, transmit-ting the maps and report of the survey for the in-ter-occanic ship canai via Lake Nicaragua. Laid on the table and ordered to be printed. The unfinished business, being the general claims bill, was then taken up, the question being on the amendment reported by the Committee on Claims to strike out the allowance of $45,101 to Wm. Bailey, of Louisiana.

The amendment was discussed at great length.

THE CURRENCY CONFERENCE.

Mr. WRIGHT, from the committee of conference on the currency bill, submitted a report, which he said was signed by every member of the committee. He gave notice that he should call it up to-incorrow at the expiration of the morning hour.

PACIFIC RAILBOADS.

Mr. HOWE, from the Committee on Railroads, reported a bill providing for accepting as completed all portions of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific railroads and their branches within the meaning of section three of the act of July 1, 1802, upon which trains have run during the last year, and to issue patents for the lands granted in aid thereof as rapidly as the surveys of the United States are extended, which surveys shall be at the Government expense.

The question being taken on the amendment to the ciaims bill to exclude the amount allowed to Wim. Bailey, it was rejected—ayes II, noss 33.

The next amendment of the committee, to strike out the appropriation to Settits Elsey and Maria H. Turpin, 43,503 each, was agreed to.

Also, amendment referring back the case of Whitty M. Sasser to the extent of the interest of Settits Elsey and Maria H. Turpin, and the case of John Campbell, administrator of the estate of Suphen S. Springer, to the commissioners of ciaims.

The bill was then passed.

THE DISTRICT BILL.

Mr. ALLISON then called up the bill to remodel the government of the District of Columbia. The bill was read, when Mr. ALLISON said the bill was the result of the most careful consideration by the committee; it had been unanimously agreed to by the committee, and had passed the House almost unanimously. He had the huit would be passed without amendment.

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKHE'S TABLE.

Mr. POLAND, of Vi., desired to submit a proposition in relation to the business on the Speaker's table. It was manifest that no business could be done, except by a two-third vote, so long as the evil irights bill was on the table. The question had been tested twice, and the bill could not be passed by a two-third vote. He yielded to no one in his desire to have the bill passed, but it was uncless to struggle longer over the Senate bill. He therefore submitted a proposition to go to business on the Speaker's table, so that when the civil rights bill was reached it should be referred to the Judiciary Committee, with the understanding that it should not be reported back, except by a two-third vote. That would leave the bill practically as it was now, for no party advantage would be gained.

Mr. G. F. HOAR objected, because Mr. Poland's proposition would deprive the bill of the advantage it had on the Speaker's table. As it was now no business could be transacted. The constitutional majority was in favor of the bill, and he desired that those who wanted to do so should take the responsibility of stopping legislation by preventing the constitutional majority from passing a bill it desired to pass.

Mr. BEOR, of Ky., said he was one who took that responsibility, and he would stop all legislation before he would permit that bill to pass.

Pending further consideration.

Mr. E. H. ROBERTS, of N. E. submitted the BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S TABLE.

WORK OF THE PENSION COMMITTEE. WORK OF THE PENSION COMMITTEE. The House Committee on Invalid Pensions met yesterday, and, after a revision of tile docket, adjourned until December next. The total number of cases which have been referred to this committee, this session, has been 1,150, or only 125 less for this one session than were referred to this committee for the three sessions of the Forty-second Congress, when the number reached 1,250. The cases have been disposed of as follows: Reported favorably and passed the House, 252; reported favorably and passed the House, 252; reported favorably and passed the House, 252; reported daversoly, 260; covered by general bills reported, 250, and about 20 cases have been reported back to be sent to other committees, leaving nearly 500 cases to go over to next session. The committee has also prepared and passed the following general bills, which have passed both Houses, vis.: increasing total first grade from $51.25 to $50 per month; to equalize special act provisions with the veneral law rathers in cases. Where above the circow and a leg above the since count at $21 per month; to equalize special act provisions with the general law ratings in cases where their pensions are less. Also, the following, which have passed the House and are now pending in the Senate: Bill giving $30 for an artificial eye; bill extending the provisions of the general law to the dependent mother, father or relative, after a widow's death or marriage, bill increasing.

of the pensions for each disability. The committee has also reported a bill to extend the time for filing applications to January 1, 1875, which is now pensing in the House.

A noticeable fact in the business of the committee, transacted under the chairmanship of Gen.
Rusk, of Wisconsin, is that not a single recommendation made by them has been overruled by the House. Although the laws relating to the various grades of pensioners have been materially changed, still Gen. Rusk and his committee have steadily carried a majority of the House for the innovations and improvements devised. The committee and its able chairman may well feel proud of the achievements of this session.

THE SUNDRY CIVIL BILL. ng for the Library of Congress $200,000. Cleveland, of Chicago, to consider and report at the next session of Congress by what economical measures the greatest public value may be given to the connected series of public grounds, including those of the Capitol and Executive Mansion. This committee will also move an amendment appropriating $19,000 for the extension and improvement of the old City Hall of Washington, so as to accommodate the District courts, the Court of Claims, and the pension office. The Joint Committee on the Library will press an amendment appropriating $29,000 to enable them to purchase works of art to ornament the Capitol building.

SEAMEN LOST OFF THE UNITED STATES

SEAMER FORTUNE.

Secretary Robeson has received a letter from Lieutenant Francis M. Green, commanding the United States steamer Fortune, dated Vera Crus, Mexico, May 20, 1874, in which he gives an account of the death by drowning of four men of the ship's company by the capsizing of a boat off Peint Zopatitian. The names of the drowned men were John Moran, Richard Norker, John Melinnis and James Daley. Commander Green accords great priese to Easign T. C. Spencer, who, at great risk, swam out from shore through a heavy surf three times, saving the lives of Lieut. Hatchins and Beatswain's Mate John Smith, who would have drowned without his aid, and made a most gallant effort to save Melinnis. Quartermaster Christopher Fowier is also mentioned for gallant conduct on the occasion.

Lieutenants Henry C. Hunter and Edward P. Wood, dotashed from the Colorado, and placed on waiting orders. Lieutenant Commander George W. Osdin and Passed Assistant Engineers J. C. Pambarton and J. C. Ropar, from the Naval Academy, and placed on waiting orders.

NORTH CAROLINA DISASTER.

STATEMENT OF THE CHIEF ENGINEER. WILMINGTON, N. C., June 18.—Col. S. L. Fre-mont, chief engineer and general superintendent of the Carolina Central railway, tolegraphs to-day from the scene of the recent disaster the fol-lowing explanation of the cause of the accident: It was the most terrific rain-storm ever known here. Six inches of rain are said to have fallen in about fours. The culvert was in good order, in about fours. The culvert was in good order, and so far as I can see is so now. The rain fell in such torrents that it choked the culvert, and the water apparently rose so high that it soaked through the bank and finally broke it. All this work of construction was done in 1800 or 1801. But the bank is hard and solid all about the culvert, and stood perhaps a thousand rains before. As the rails were not carried away with the bank, but remained sub, ended with the cross-ties hanging in their places, and the break in the bank not being longer than the engine and tender, the engineer saw nothing wrong until he was upon it. Besides this it is at the end of a cut and curve that prevented it from being seen until within two hundred feet.

Galvin, the engineer, died of his wounds, and his remains reached here this afternoon. The balance of the wounded are reported better, with a strong hope of ultimate recovery.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The convention adopted a series of resolutions, including the following:

Resolved. That is no high and plain duty to roturn to a specie basis at the earliest practicable day, not only in compliance with legislative and party plediges, but as a step indispensible to lasting prosperity.

Resolved. That we believe the time has come when this can be done, or at least begun, with less embarrarsment to every branch of industry than at a fature time, after resort has been made to unstable and temporary expedients to stimulate unreal prosperity and speculation on a basis other than coin as the recognized medium of exchange throughout the commercial world.

Resolved. That the Republican party of Maine approves of the action of the President in vectors the bill known as the currency bill.

**Resolved. That we recognize not only the principle but the importance and necessity of judicious injure laws, believing them to be superior to any plan of license or of local option, and that the maintainance and confirmation of such laws are quites which we owe to the people.

After the adoption of the resolutions the conmaintainance and confirmation of such laws are duties which we owe to the people. After the adoption of the resolutions the con-vention adjourned without day.

> OUTDOOR SPORTS. THE TURF.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The patrons of the turf, New York, June 18.—The patrons of the turf, who assembled in large numbers in the poel rooms last evening, were astonished by the announcement that of five races on the programme for to-day, on the Jerome Park course, only two were to be run, vis, a prine of $500 for three-year olds and a handicap stoople chase. The reason assigned for the emission of the other races was the summary withdrawal of all running horses from to-day's contest, their owners having become dissistatised at the inexplicable complications with which the managers of the American Jocky Club's spring meeting had louded their horses down. The owners compliained that the weights for ages had not been given in a small purse, and they added that nobody but the managers could understand precisely for what the horses were running.

THE RACES.

Out of the five races set down for Jerome park to-day two proved walks-over, while the face for the members cup, gentlemen riders, failed to fill. Kadi walked over for the mile-and-a-haif dush, and Whisper for the mile-and-three-quarrer dush. NEW GOLD MINES IN MONTANA. RECENT DISCOVERIES OF UNSUR-PASSED RICHNESS AND EXTENT.
From the Helena (Montana) Heroid, from the From the Helena (Montana) Beruld, from the Argunt Courier, of Boxman City, and leading citizens of that Territory now in Washington, we are authentically apprised of the recent discovery of gold piacer mines right in the heart of Montons of greater richness and extent than any ever before developed in that famous gold-bearing region. The Jefferson river, (one of the three forks of the Missouri.) from developments since spring opened, promises to be a second "Utherver," which gave to California so many millions of the precious metal after the placer gold product was supposed there to have been expansion. Said Jefferson river, formed by the Big Hole, the Red Rock and the Stinking Waier as its fountain sources, heads in and runs through the very heart of Montana and owing to the last developments of its rich gold placers along its bed, bare, liands, &c., and of such richness that an owner a day ($18) to the man can be taken out by the simple and rude process of the "rocker," has already been staked off and claimed by actual occupants for more than forty miles in extent; while the beds and bars of its principal tributaries, upon being prospected, are also promising rich yields.
